I am Buffalo Bill's horse. I have spent my life under his saddle—with him in it, too, and he is good for two hundred hounds, without his clothes; and there is no telling how much he does weigh when he is out on the war—path and has his batteries belted on. He is over six feet, is young, hasn't an ounce of waste llesh, is straight, graceful, springy in his motions, quick as a cat, and has a handsome face, and black hair dangling down on his
